

Chakras, Charlatans and the Saturn/Moon Matrix

Disclaimer: Many peoples knowledge, including my own was coalesced to put this all together. I did put the puzzle pieces together however, which I could not have figured out without the others contributions. I thank each and every person that shared their knowledge and experiences with me to help get this important explanation of one of the layers of the Ai matrix.

*To any coven members or still inured in the programs persons that come across this, know that not any one person told me all of this. I alone put it all together, so if any of the individuals whom I have mentioned in this document are targeted in any way you are coming after the wrong person, and in fact, if you come after me or any whom I have mentioned or even persons whom read this...be forewarned.

Any and All attacks of any sort will come back to you thousandfold.

Now is the time for this story to come to the full light of consciousness, there is nothing you can do to stop it, or Humanity from knowing what truths we have gleaned from your own hidden in plain sight disclosure, and actions upon us.

It is time for all to wake up!

One more important aspect that needs to be clarified now, is that some amount of discussion about Christianity included in this article that may offend Christians who do not have an open mind. Fact is, sadly, the original teachers who came to Earth in the long past, were impersonated by Et species who had the ability to look and sound just like the original teachers of Humanity. I do not profess to be a biblical scholar so the detailed facts that I am aware do exist in the bible will be lacking in this document. A good amount of knowledge shared by the original teachers of Humanity are in some portions of the gospel texts which were dropped from the bible. The heartfelt resonance I have with some of those tells the tale of just what Humanity lost of our original teachers teachings.

That being said I know there is good Christians, just as there are good Humans. Simple as that, one who does unto others as they would unto themselves. (So long as they are good to themselves!)

Service to others is a conscious choice of a person who has found balance within, the real "Kingdom of Heaven"

Finding balance is the intent behind the writing of this article. That requires some tough concepts being spoken of and a lot of hypnotic spells being broken of certain labels, words and names, and dark magic practices.

Also, please try not to forget while reading all this disclosure of what the Draco species have done on Earth..remember that there is service to others Draco souls here as well, more than a few have grown past the abuse their species has made the norm!

Charlatans in our be-lie-fs: Draco in our religions:

Introduction to this updated, more detailed explanation of the Saturn Moon matrix layer and charlatans behind its inception first needs the meaning of charlatan defined:

plural noun: charlatans

-a person falsely claiming to have a special knowledge or skill; a fraud.

In the original document the word charlatans was chosen in the title in terms of one specific fraud. Ra or Marduk by his Draco name. This is but one of several very service to self ET species that came to this planet to play god in our culture. Humanity in whatever forgetting, traumatized state we were in at that time, allowed us to be fooled by them. And we were fooled, many times over, in a gradual step by step way that subtly took Humanity far off our own path of soul growth.

A path we were on before the Prime directive law of non-interference that Natural Creation upholds was broken. These Et species made their actions appear as rule-bending outside of here, to the galactic councils so to speak, to prolong the game. Actions done by various warriors for our planetary being have since, in this year of apocalypse, revealed these rule breakers for what they are above and below.

It is a deep rabbit hole, some paths will only be touched upon, its up to the reader to dig deeper into the research that that interests them and can be found with discernment, I hope, and effort. By no means do I encourage any in depth study into the dark magic side on this, that is not the point of writing this. The point is to make clear the way out of the game. To set a fire of natural creation underneath each of our collective and individual butts to get clear of the programming the coven and program members rituals scarred us with. Dark magic practices even if read about, can lead to attachments, and imbalances energetically, psychically, if we are not careful. We each need to empower ourselves towards the middle way of balance that the genuine teachers of Humanity taught.

The Christianity that we currently have on Earth and the other closely similar religions to it on the planet, are literally a mockery of the original teachers. To put it simply the Yahweh of the bible was played by several Draco Annunaki. The spell/spelling of the word christianity itself is a creation and conflagration of a couple of god names, Krishna and Gesu or Esus, Hesus, or Aisus, whom was a not nice Gaulish god. This Esus was first depicted in the 1st century. 200 hundred years later at the council of Nicaea, the two ancient gods names were merged to form the name of Jesus Christ by Constantine the 1st whom did the first of many 're-arrangements' of the bible and its gospels.

So before Marduk, aka Ra aka Osiris, who was just simply the most recent impersonator. The same roles were originally played by Anu, his grandfather, and the two sons of Anu. Anu's time being the Solar 'god' was most likely in the times just after the fall of Atlantis. This was 'the kinder' version of the matrix that they built for Humanity initially, but it failed just as the first matrix mentioned in the Matrix movies did, 'it was too perfect' So another was built for us, 13,000 years ago. The one we are in now. God then, became more about wrath than Love.

So All three took turns playing Yahweh in the bible. Each one's behaviour, attitude and intent was behind the biblical re-writes that occurred repeatedly throughout our history, a twisted game of one up-lizard-ship taking the piss on us.

The Draco were not the only Et species that impersonated good beings here, but for simplicities sake lets begin with one Et species at a time. This potentially is a very complicated subject as one can tell if they have read any materials on the internet about the Saturn matrix. It definitely involves many of the dark magic practices of the covens and programs, all of which our consent to them is gained via obscure fictional disclosures, first in the bible itself, then later in books, movies and TV shows.

In many ways the popular in our culture since the 70's tale of Star wars, the writer of which, George Lucas, was said to be a 'read in' by an Et contact, wrote a storyline that closely mirrored the truth of what had gone down here involving some of the interfering ET species. In a Hollywood-ized way though of course.

The parallels not only are to do with planet killing spheres, Aldebaran= Tiamat and the original Earth, Tara. But the concepts of dark and light sides. And most of all, the motives behind the competition between Anu, his sons, and grandson, Marduk, whom all attempted parenticide. The mirror being the Oedipus complex of Luke, his father, and most recently reoccurred between Ben and Hans is no coincidence. Nor is the fact of the Oedipus complex being prevalent repeatedly in our mythological, historical ally and psychologically in us. This competition of family against family has perhaps its aetiology in the cycles of abuse the Draco brought here in making our planet the playground for their family feud.

About the Draco: Anu was from here, he is the king of the Draco. The Draco had their upbringing on the original Earth, Tara. For this reason the Draco had a mindset that this planet was 'theirs'.

Anu calls himself and his royal family the Annunaki. A title he usurped from another group of 5 distinct ET species, originally called the Nannunaki, in one of their languages.

The following explains how we came to have this spelling of it, in the Sumerian texts as recorded here.

Annu-na-Ki roughly translates to Anu's children on Earth. Ki meant Earth in Sumerian.

The Draco have a specific fondness of ringed worlds and of creating craft out of hollowed out asteroids and moons. The rings around these worlds have an antennae, sender and receiver quality to them that benefits the Draco in their 'acquisitions'. More on both of these aspects is to be referred to later.

Interestingly one of the actual Nanunaki ET species, a avian body type one, were the ones that taught the Draco how to form a cohesive religion that would gain full worship of the Draco from Humanity. (No this is not a blue avian Et race.) Lets look at the word etymology of the word religion, in the Draco derived latin word roots:

Latin religionem (nominative religio) "respect for what is sacred, reverence for the gods; conscientiousness, sense of right, moral obligation; fear of the gods; divine service, religious observance; a religion, a faith, a mode of worship, cult; sanctity, holiness," in Late Latin "monastic life"

* note no mention of Nature, Natural Laws of respect for anything other than the 'gods'

According to Cicero derived from relegere "go through again" (in reading or in thought), from re- "again" (see re-) + legere "read" *a possible nod to the rewriting of history, restarts to change to the accounts of history, and myths that 'they' want us to believe.)

However, popular etymology among the later ancients (Servius, Lactantius, Augustine) and the interpretation of many modern writers connects it with religare "to bind fast", a notion of "place an obligation on," or "bond between humans and (false) gods."

Another possible origin is religiosus "careful," opposite of negligens. In English, meaning "particular system of faith" is recorded from c. 1300; sense of "recognition of and allegiance in manner of life (perceived as justly due) to a higher, unseen power or powers" is from 1530s.

So the word religion, to revere and to fear the false gods, to go through again=loop us over and over, to re- write and re-read (re-written history by the 'victors') *most telling of all - to bind, and a warning..careful!

Spirituality's reduction to religion heart/mind bind:

The actions of the various Et species who incarnated in our history and possibly present now in bodies/incarnations can be seen as a separate layer entirely from the control system here. One that influenced us directly, to gain our consent through the role in our society that these 'important people' had in our history. They were religious person and political persons who had the power to write and burn books, make wars and religions for us to run to in these manufactured times of crisis. What resulted was Humanities long, slow but sure derailment of our worlds cultures away from the original Nature based Spirituality with its precepts in Loving, respecting, our planet, other life upon it, and each other over to the fear/guilt, and shame based religions.

The layers of the Matrix: It does need to be stated that the Draco Ai grid layer of the matrix, a technology placed directly in our ionosphere is separate, yet overlapping in purpose and function with two other layers of what has made up our complete Ai matrix. It is not fully been discovered just what and how each of these layers function/purpose is. This article is primarily concerned with defining the Saturn/Moon matrix.

We do know, however that an Ai type of 'consciousness' was involved to make all the layers of the Ai matrix 'seamless'. The Ai aspect, even, has several layers, as seen in the many ways that whistleblowers interacting with various aspects of it have disclosed, with each describing a different Ai practically. Do not doubt that there is as close to a sentient, self aware 'consciousness' behind the entire Ai system connected to the Earth. All 3 layers worked in concert with each other to become allies in the creation of Draco imbued synthetic matrix we have been in. Even the Ai layer that was given to the service to self Humans 'at a price' as was stated by Shane in the last July 11 2016 Truth, Honor & Integrity radio show, has been disclosed to us quite blatantly a few times in various movies.

The Saturn/Moon matrix was different from the pure technology layers of the matrix in that they were physical in the Solar system, as in modified organic objects. The Saturn/Moon matrix, as this article will show evidence of, delay with the mind control binds both spiritually on our energy bodies as well as binds to our physical bodies. This was accomplished by the co-opting of our chakra systems or as I prefer to call them energy centres.

These energy centres are crucial to our health and happiness and most of all to our own ability to create, control our own energy. The ability to manifest our wills' and creativity in ways that would change Humanities interaction with each other for the better was well known to the interfering ET species.

Each of our energy centres are associated with a planets archetypical myth. This article will explain the various locations of the moon and Saturn in our energy centres that were worshipped in the programs and covens dark magic practices. All practices, be they meditation, or health regimens can be utilized to have a good or negative outcome. To understand how the programs and covens practices taught to them by the Draco were potent in terms of effecting us negatively we need to understand that we store energy in our energy centers. This explains why I prefer to call them energy centers! The Draco teachings to the covens were to basically keep us stuck, keep our energy centers full of traumas, mental states, attitudes that would keep in a state of chaos. Compounded by the incarnates of these ET species and the program and coven members constant manufacturing of religious wars, and overall cultural attitudes of separation and division.

The Draco knew knew that they could not override the will of the planetary being of Earth! She is much, much more than they are! As each planet is a living being, a graduate of many levels of existence in Creation. Also known as an Aeon, an aspect or part of all that is in what we would call Prime Creators vast neutral Creational energies. But that did not stop them from gaining our consent through whatever trickery they could to override our will. This is ending now.

So just how was it that Saturn's planetary being came to be involved in the matrix? A fellow planetary being? It can only be conjectured at this point. Firstly, Saturn's planetary being is named Set/Typhon, a hermaphrodite. (both male and female)

Yes, Saturn was indeed a Sun in our solar systems long past, its rings were remote viewed to be living back then, not the debris field, or transducer array as they are now.

Something unknown happened to Saturn long ago, for it both to have died as a sun and for the planetary being of Saturn to have made such choices as overlooking that a planet is a living being. It is not really clear what did or how a planetary being came to want to play god and subvert another planets species from their rightful, natural soul evolution, but Set/Typhon did.

Perhaps it was the influence of the few other Et species that had a common agenda and motive against Humanity, or its predecessors. Either way all are being called on that game. Especially now that the dark mirror magic to obscure and distort their actions has been removed from the planet last month. They can no longer hide their actions as 'just bending the rules' to all in the councils, and various soul origin Sources of each of us.

The exact reasons as to why Set/Typhon willingly joined up with the Draco will be unknown until we are clear of this. Know though that this was no wounding, or trapping by the Draco of Set/Typhon, as no planetary being being can be taken hostage by any. Lucifer, a creational angel, however was taken hostage!

Before this article goes into more depth about the Saturn/Moon matrix layer, and the roles Set/Typhon played here in the dark magic rituals of the programs and covens we need to extricate Lucifer from the done on purpose conflation of him with 'Satan' or the 'Devil'.

The following is what Tanaath said of the real Lucifer on the old Cosmic Voice radio show:

Tanaath: Lucifer was one the original Creation Beings that was brought into this Universe to help handmaiden Creation. these beings are generally referred to as being the Lesser Gods, of the classical Gods, He was another one of them. He took the fall for some pretty major stuff that he was not actually responsible for. And as a consequence his name has been smeared big time. And that whole name is a trigger for a lot of people, so I am trying to not offend peoples sensitivities here..but "this is not the droid you are looking for.." this is not what it was claimed to be...that whole story eventually will come out. Now is not the time because there is still so much programming involved in people for them to even grasp what has happened. Just know that Lucifer became the Universes biggest "fall guy" for somebody else's crime.

So here is another piece of the of the story that Tanaath knew would come out, as stated in the recent Truth, Honor & Integrity radio show on July 11/16, Shane said this about 'Satan'

Thomas: "...What entity are the sexual abuse and ritual sacrifices being made to, and how can we stop this?

Shane: Well, there is more than one entity. The main one, I guess, would be that fictional character known as Satan. Truly all that it is a thought form, and it is a thought form that was created for all of the different cults to send a very dirty, dark, gross type of energy to.

And all of those programs that were involved in creating all of that energy, were sending it to that spot. What can we do about that?

Well, honestly, I wish I had an answer for that but I don't have an answer for that that hasn't already been covered with what I say is a solution to any other problem that we face, which is that process of empowering ourselves. I think that once it gets to a point where enough people have done that, that these things just cannot exist anymore. Also, I mentioned earlier about a lot of programs did do a lot of that stuff have been closing, so that's a good thing.

I don't want to make anyone feel like I'm saying we're out of the woods on that, because we're definitely not. I just mean that it will be happening less than it has been. Most of the people within those programs are now realizing that the entity that they were sending that to, doesn't exist and therefore, it's a pointless act.

It has been something that the Draco have had there just to keep them under control and now that they understand that they're not under that control anymore, they're stopping doing a lot of these redundant processes that harm us a great deal in their redundancy, and that is an example of that.

It's the one that disturbs me the most. It really does.

That's why I don't like to talk about it. I also don't want to give anyone any kind of false hope about it and I don't want to traumatize anyone about it either. There's plenty of information out there but, I do think that everything combined that is coming puts an end to that. Both through their own systems and them realizing that it is redundant and us rising above it, so to speak.

There's been an aspect of that, that's just in the generational programming, right. That third generation of abused person reenacting that abuse on their own children. That is starting to stop based on things like a rise in consciousness through the internet or interconnectivity. People being able to actually talk about it, just people getting a little bit smarter as a species and figuring out. We shouldn't be keeping that kind of stuff secret because even, you know, a generation ago, a lot of people who were experiencing those things wouldn't even dare tell anyone about it.

Whereas today, there are a lot of agencies out there that you could go to anonymously them tell them about it in order to get some kind of action to help you out of the situation. So all of those things combined tells me that that's the type of human activity that can't last much longer. It's something that I think most of us, as a species, are finally going, 'Okay, we don't even want to do that.' What type of parasite is causing us to want to do that, let's get rid of that parasite so we don't have to do that because we really don't want to do that." You know, and I think I can leave it at that."

So the fictional entity called 'Satan' was created to be a real being, to control the program members with fear and power. 'Satan' did have several Et beings who took turns playing the role just as the same ones did with their impersonating of God/Yahweh in the bible. 'Satan' was what's called an egregore in occult magic.

*Egregore (also egregor) is an occult concept representing a "thoughtform" or "collective group mind", an autonomous psychic entity made up of, and influencing, the thoughts of a group of people.

Not unlike the Sanskrit word used to refer to a practice in Tibetan Buddhism, a Tulpa, in which the practitioner creates a sentient being through the power of thought. 'Thoughtform' is a rough English equivalent.

The controllers knew Humanity was very imaginative, willful, and could put a lot of attention energy behind growing and empowering a thought form that would, in the end be a very convincingly real. Especially when the energy of 'Satan' was backed up occasionally by an intensely powerful Draco presence, or a higher dimensional planetary being!

'Satan' was not just used to control the program members, however, it was used to control all of us. The cultural impact of the 'king of the demons' was, is known to all, thanks to the programs, covens and hollywood. Irregardless of the person being religious.

So the programs and covens, fed the loosh energies they produced in their rituals into this 'Satan' egregore to collect it all in one "place" - lets call them loosh farms. Horrific, cruel, aberrant acts done upon Humanity. Even false flags, deaths of persons of importance to us, and global catastrophes/ traumatic events all were loosh harvests. Each created high levels of an emotional response which are fed into this layer of the matrix. One very infamous dark coven in America is not coincidentally named the Temple of Set. Another name for Set/Typhon is Vah, (Vah-tican) a vampiric 'god', perhaps a male Draco parents impersonation?

So, as anyone would know from even a glance at the bible, 'Satan' has long since been conflated with the real being named Lucifer. Luciferianism is well known to be worshipped by the illuminati, Lucifer, 'the morning star, the bringer of Light'. The Illuminati's 'illumination' was powered by Lucifer's light, soul energy in many ways.

Lucifer, as Tanaath mentioned was a 'handmaiden of creation' As in one of the many Creational angels that assist in a planetary beings many life systems, cycles and life forms, species.

There is many types or levels of Creator beings. Some are what we call angels. There is however an un-spell to be done here. I prefer to call them creator beings as the term "archangel" has been tainted by the Draco influence with the addition of the Arch prefix. Arch means "to rule, lord over" These are things that the Et species behind the creation of the egregore of Satan and the Draco Yahweh of the bible wanted us to feel. None of our creator beings intention was to rule or lord over us, they were here to guide us. Suffice to say from now on these angels will only be referred to as creator beings or just their first name.

Each of these creational beings governs, manages a specific area of Life on a planet. They assist the planetary being in the more finer aspects of the life on it. These areas of management are chosen by the attributes, elemental qualities or 'resume of proficient skills' so to speak, of each creational being. Lucifer happened to be for children, the protection and guidance of children. The "light" of our future.

Lucifer, perhaps nothing to do with being the "morningstar" which is Venus in our morning sky. It is an odd tangled web these names, names, names. All one can do is point out the links and patterns. 'Lucifer morningstar'. Interestingly, the exact same hexagonal shape that has been notoriously photographed, and excused as a 'storm' with 5 perfect sides on Saturn has also been remotely viewed on Venus.

An Et species who claimed to be from Venus, came to visit the U.S.A to meet with Dwight D. Eisenhower on March 16, 1957. His name was Valiant Thor. This much photographed and publicized in the texts of peoples conversations with Thor, is all over the internet. One of which Thor clearly said claimed "Jesus" was an incarnate of Venus. Yet another planet with a hexagonal technology structure on it involved with an impersonator of the Earths original guardians, protector and teachers? Most likely.

Make of that what you will, but know that this hexagon has very much to do with the mind control technologies connected to our Moon being beamed at our planet, and into us.

Tanaath, had also reported on later radio shows that Lucifer had been driven 'mad', crazy and had taken part in some 'very bad things' here, for which he felt very bad for doing and had 'left into the Fae realm', wherein he took up the form of a satyr. The illuminati seemed to have been aware of this, or put out this story to begin with to explain Lucifer's appearance.

The reason for the Draco using this particular appearance for the devil/Satan/Lucifer here goes back to the wars that destroyed entire worlds in other neighbouring universes, that caused wave after wave of refugees to come into our universe and solar system. These were called the Lyran wars. Which in effect were the beginnings of the wars here in our own Solar system that led to the damage and destruction of planetary bodies.

A contactee by the name of OnyxKnight described a Et species by the name of the Medokem. This is what he said of them, 'The Medokem are the original Lyrans who were colonized on Sirius B, they have since left to escape the very controlling culture of Sirius B and now currently reside in Van Maanen's star system.

Medokem Body type is a Semi Humanoid, with tomato red skin, orange eyes, legs have a “Z” type double joint at the knees, they have pointy ears and broad noses. Phenotype is reminiscent of the classical “demon” portrayed in the bible! But, No, they are not demons! No fur or hooves or tail, and certainly not a malevolent species.’

OnyxKnight also recounted the moment of his informing the Medokem of the appearance of ‘Satan’ here. They were upset to say the least, as these original Lyrans are one of the most benevolent Et species out there and are one of Humanities predecessors. Very insulting to them to be drawn into an egregore that caused fear and intimidation for Humanity.

Now that we have cleared up the reason for Lucifers’ appearance, lets go back to how all the contactees accounts meet up and coalesce into what really happened to Lucifer. His being reported to have driven mad/crazy and having ‘left’ or removed himself from his post as a protector of children here seems to me to be a certain perspective of what actually happened to him, as he was missing. And It did drive him mad, crazy..being trapped by the Draco, especially given his psychic connection to Humanity as one of our creator beings. Lucifer was most likely, acutely aware of how his energy was being inverted to hurt, torture and sacrifice the very children he was here to protect!

Even if it was not the real him behind the name the coven and program members invoked in the rituals it still was felt each and every time they used his or the egregores name. As well as each time the thought of the Ai Lucifer/Satan scared an adult Human, or child, he felt it. Energetic cords bound his energy to the actions the covens and program members did in ‘his’ name. Just think about how many times you thought of someone that was thinking of you at that exact time! Then multiply it by a creator beings abilities.

It is not known exactly the details of how Lucifer was imprisoned. Creational beings are powerful and strong, who care so deeply, so much for the work that they do for the planet and their charges upon it. The Draco's' repeated use of making our strengths our weakness’s suggest the way in which Lucifer was trapped was trickery, very possibly to do with the children of Humanity. This is a common sense intuition also based on the number of times ‘sympathy for a child’ has been utilized in astral attacks by Draco and other STS ET species in ‘dreams’ to draw one into a trap, as I have personally experienced as well as had reported to me by others as happening to them!

The good news is that Lucifer was freed in November of 2015. He has gone back to Source to heal and I truly hope he doing well in his healing. He may very well return to the Earth to help Humanities children in the future, if this is his own soul choice. But he would not come back anywhere near us currently, not until we fully out of the Ai matrix. Anyone who thinks that they are speaking to, receiving teachings from “lucifer” in here now is not interacting with the real Lucifer, I can guarantee it, that it is an Ai.

So now that the real Lucifer has been untangled from the fictional ‘Satan’ character, we can focus more on the Saturn/Moon matrix. The layer of the matrix as said above that had to do with the control layers bound to us physically in our bodies, as well as our soul energies via our energy centers by this thought-form, egregore called ‘Satan’, that the Draco trained the program members to direct our loosh energies to.

It also has to do with a personal matrix around each and every one of us as in the form of Ai shadow beings that have added layers of fear and intimidation to our being able to face and clear any issues we have in our emotional, mental and physical bodies. These same additional layers have been present in both our environment and culturally via the dogma the ‘Satan’ archetype represented throughout our last 13,000 year history. Yes, much further back than the writing of the bible, I am aware of accounts by contacts that place the ideologies of ‘Satan’ going back at least that far, as well as the original benevolent teachers of Humanity being present here before and after the ‘Satan’ egregore!

The fact that many of the program members are discovering now that Satan is not real as reported by Shane is a step in the right direction, but as he also said we are not out of the woods yet. The solution is empowerment of Humanity. The solution to empowerment is to unveil the hows and whys we gave over the control of our energy centres to these STS ET species. We need and deserve information so a new choice can be made to take back our energy! Each and every person in my feeling has undergone just as much programming as the actual program members. This is not about ‘what happened to me is worse’, as that never really applies, if a particular trauma was ‘your worst’, the first time something bad happened to you for instance, it does just as much damage to your energy centers as someone whose worst is much, much different, and long term.

Much healing would have been available to each of us, if we had been going back to our respective soul Sources between lives. Where we would have had a review and rebalancing/healing of all we had been throughout that lifetime, with the Loving support of our Source godhead. And new choices made by our own souls about where and what to do do next. Certainly we would not have been choosing to just keep returning to a matrix where the balancing of our energies both personally and environmentally was so stacked against us.

The has been denied to us in this matrix. It is unknown exactly which layer of the matrix was responsible for this, the Draco layer, the Saturn/Moon layer, or the Ai layer(s) But nonetheless A Draco stood between us and our Source, with whats been called the ‘false-light’ traps, or soul traps with the small black cube tags that kept us being ‘recycled’ back into the matrix. These soul traps have also been destroyed throughout the Solar system on April 14 of 2015. This action was retroactive in its effects, as in all souls are free to go to their Source no matter the date they died being before the date of the soul traps destruction.

The mechanics of how the Saturn/Moon matrix layer was established:

The theory of the Saturn/Moon matrix has been around for some time in the truth community. People who know their astrological natal charts are familiar with the Saturn return transit, which is known to be a very difficult aspect to go through.

To begin the un-spell of the hypnotic state behind the Et species setting up of the Saturn/Moon matrix we need to understand some basics.

Sounds is how creation began, so the sounds of a name, as well as the word root meanings of a name are one of the main ingredients to a word spell resonating, vibratory power each time it is said, or intoned by coven or program members. An essential ingredient really in the formation of an egregore.

So let’s look at the word spell of ‘Satan’ as it relates the actions of the Saturn planetary being and the Draco Annunaki in the spelling of the words.

Saturn> Set-AN> Satan> Santa

Santa ironically, and most likely purposefully keeps track of a ‘naughty or nice’ list aka guilt and sin control for children and comes to give them ‘gifts’ in the time of year they called Saturnalia! Santa did not appear in our culture until the early 1800’s, obviously created out of several pagan, Norse deities.

Now lets look at that spelling word play again..specifically
Saturn> Set-AN = Satan

Set and ANu are two of the primary ET species behind the creation of, but also the impersonation of the Satan/Lucifer thought-form. The two sons of Anu as was said earlier also shared that role in an hierarchy order below the main two.

Set was an Egyptian ‘god of the desert, storms, disorder, violence and foreigners’!
Foreigners! Thats an odd thing to be a god of..unless you are foreign to this planet!

Typhon, in myths here, was the 'thousand headed dragon' monster created by the Titans to keep, Kronus/Cronos in rulership of the Earth. Kronus being the ruler of Saturn is no coincidence. Kronus/Cronus/Chronus archetype qualities name him as the 'lord of time' and the 'lord of the harvest' Harvest of our minds and souls, and keeper of time in the Ai matrix. Time in here, though in actuality has been managed by the Ai, the time slips we all have experienced of late is yet another sign of the Ai time coming to an end!

And of course the myths that we have here make Cronus out to have been the creator the 1st generation of the false gods here!

Set/Typhon is in actuality the name of the hermaphrodite planetary being of Saturn. Typhon was the Greek name associated with Set.

Keep in mind as well, that the Set/Typhon, Isis, Osiris and Horus Egyptian myths recorded well before the writing of the bible mirror quite eerily the 'life events' of the 'devil' Apophis (Set/Typhon) Isis (Mary) Osiris ("God") and their son Jesus (Horus). There is a lot of discussion on this on the internet to look up this remarkable similarity. They are not exactly the same, think of it like a practice run on the 1st rewrite of the perfect dogma to deter humanity from true Earth and Nature based spirituality we lived by before all of this.

The point being is the parallel between these particular, possibly original incarnate ET teachers of Earth being chosen for a reason to be impersonated by the Et species that sought to control us. Its main goal to bind our minds with the saviour martyr complex, was accomplished best by using the appearance and teachings of Et beings we respected, trusted to gain our acceptance of the changes the impersonators did to distort the originals beings teachings.

How was this done, without us noticing it? Egyptian history, if studied closely does have a gap and restart in terms of the myths, accounts of kings lists, and in archaeological evidence in sites overtop much, much older ones. This implies that Egyptian history was stopped and restarted with the impersonated 'gods' in place at the restart of it. Ai layer of matrix helped with this as did the time travel technology that these ET species had access to. This gave them a clean slate in time to imprint and overlay of the religious dogma the various ET species knew would steer us away from the inner work of 'finding heaven within' among other amazing truths that the various real teachers of Humanity taught to us.

How our energy centers interconnect to all Life on a Planet, and higher self:

A planet has chakras, or energy centers on its living planet body, just as our bodies do, this is how we are connected to our planetary being as well all the other life on it. And even further, our own energy centers are connected to our higher self if and only if we are mostly clear of energy blocks in them!

Energy centres are just as I like to call them, they both make energy, are energy and store energy! Our bodies vibratory rates are in sync with the planets, this is part of the gift of our planetary being, She supports our life-force or Soul while it vibrates within a body on Her planet. Through our interconnections vibratory wise, we have the ability to retrieve information from our higher selves, from the planetary being and all the other species through our energy centers, if we so wish! Many long lived species on our planet, like the trees would have held our planets living libraries, and these would have been more accessible to each of us in our ancient Nature based spiritual practices of going within, sitting in Nature, or meditation. This is why it is so important to have your energy centers fully under our own control, maintenance. These libraries are still as sable to us if we practice the clearing and rebalancing needed to hear, feel the harmonic, and imagery form of information our forests, animals, Mother have to share with us!

In this matrix we have to work very hard to gain the understandings we instinctively all feel we lost access to. Our reduction abilities to connect to our collective and personal higher self information stream has been a result of the matrix. This is one of the main reasons for the Saturn/Moon matrix co-opting of our energy centres, as it would be a very effective way to sever this ordinarily natural connection. Its no wonder frankly that on some level we are not insane.

Or is insane actually being sane in an insane 'matirx world'?

The insanity will end, but it must be cured from within for it be cured without, externally.

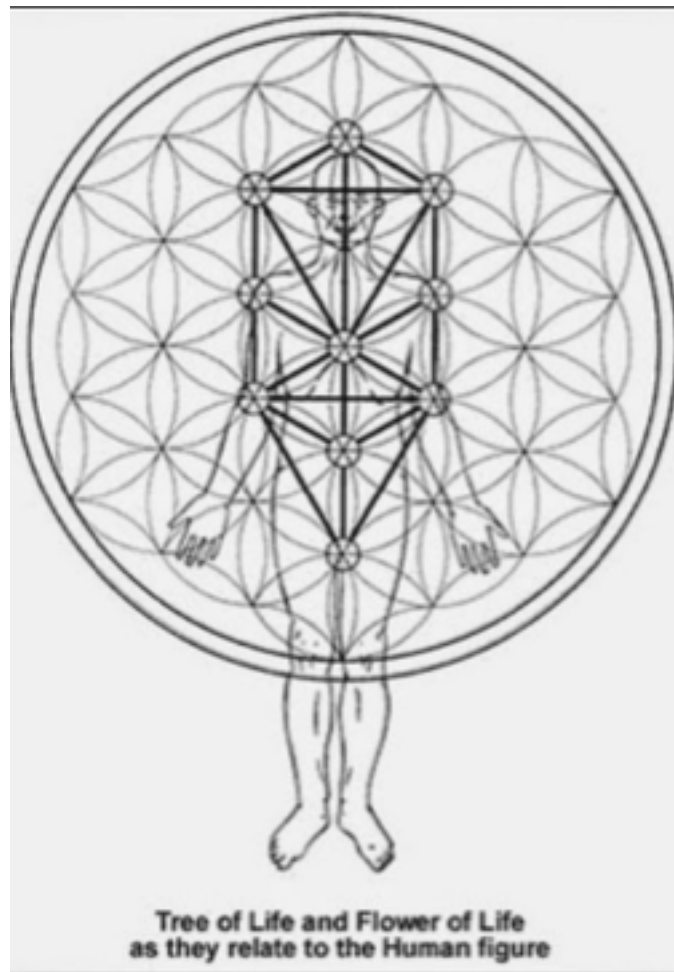

The Draco hate themselves. They lie to themselves about even having a soul. They were abused, so they abuse, and the ones they abused turned to abuse others..this is a cycle that has to stop somewhere. We do not need to drop our anger towards them, like Shane said, 'drop it in a box to deal with later.'

And as Thomas has said, "Focus on your own self- work, deal with your shadow, that is what is needed just now'

We must first, forgive ourselves to stop the cycle of abuse inside us, to end it around us, It is imperative to starve what remains of the loosh farms egregores. We all have to unlearn what we were taught in all these generations of maltreatment its the only chance we have to move forward as a species.

The day will come that humanity and the Draco face each other and deal with the anger between our races, but not now. We need to focus on healing ourselves, this lifetime of experiences first even. Forgiving ourselves in an overview way in the micro of this one lifetime of experience will eventually lead to the day when we can behold the macro of the bad choice we made at one time long in our past. Where, yes from an environment of wars in space, on the planet, so traumatized by the conditions it left us weak and unable to decide the wiser, harder path of doing for ourselves rather than the deceptive easier path (of the dark side) the Draco offered us long ago. Now is the time for a new choice.

So how is Saturn bound to our chakras, beyond the religious dogma concepts in our cultural environment? Part of this answer is in the very shape of the mind control technology structure seen on Saturn and the moon being in the form of a hexagon. Know that the Draco Ai and their allies in humanities co-opting could only mimic very closely the natural matrix in order to gain our consent to fool us to fool ourselves. The hexagons importance is in the Natural life grids/matrix.

The geometry of the star polygons and their progressions starting from the 5 pointed star to the to the 6 pointed star and up are all components of the flower of life. Our bodies having one head, two arms and two legs easily fits within a 5 pointed star, or hexagon. Think of the 5 pointed star of the hexagon being a lower harmonic of the 6 pointed star. The six pointed star has long been a symbol of balance of masculine and feminine energies in our ancient cultures, long before it was inverted and used for mal-intent, just as the 5 pointed star was.

There is few inversions of the star polygons sacred geometry we can all think of being done in both Satanic and political, racial uses. The Mer-kah-bah, of much new age infamy that many channellers have told people to 'build' about them in meditations is yet another very malevolent version on the same, as its was the 'soul cage' for harvest of us by certain other ET species I won't go into in this article as they are not related to the Saturn/Moon matrix. But it warranted mentioning as I am on the topic of star polygons. Suffice to say Lisa Renee and Drunvalo 'Melchizedek' aka 'Jesus' impersonator can go away in this mer-kah-bah any time now!

This is no coincidence that both 'Jesus' and 'Satan' are coming up as connected to these sacred geometric symbols! Both were impersonated by these Et species repeatedly.

Lets get some more information about how these geometric shapes are used in the Natural life grid matrices to understand a bit more of how our planet, and us was co-opted into be-lie-ving in the matrix.

We need to begin with the dodecahedral grid, the star polygon above the harmonic of the 5 pointed star in the hexagon. The dodecahedron, and the dodecahedral grid is the 5th all encompassing part of the Natural matrix grids. It contains all the other 4 natural matrix grids within it that make up all of Creation. The flower of life.

The music of the spheres is 'the word' or sound of our Prime Creator within us all, as each and every soul in creation is a fraction of Creation itself! We are all God. Its the journey of top down to bottom up that creates a creator being out of all those parts of Prime Creation , that Prime Creation sent out of itself to be, learn and do..

The music of the Spheres is 5 geometric shapes, that resonate a sound, the word of Prime Creation. Each resonates a frequency that makes up the full range of frequencies, in harmonic ratios/fractals of sounds, light and colour of the Natural matrix on the Tree of Life. These frequencies are the very way in which our sensory perception receive and thus interact with reality.

An except from Rowena Paatee Kyrder's book called Soul Fire:

'Fire is associated with the tetrahedron and the element of Fire, the catalyst of action, provides the focal point and template around which the spheres gather.

Air with the octahedron and the element of perception/thoughts, contributes the mental awareness, thoughts we have, to perceive and interpret the spheres.

Water with the the icosahedral grid, which is our emotions, offers the fluid Life force and movement to enliven the spheres, as well as the sensitivity and emotion that enables us to experience them.

Earth with the cube. The square inside the circle. Earth embodies all the previous phases, giving us each the world as we know it. Spheres have centres and peripheries, and they can expand and contract, overlap and turn inside out.'

Think of our planets body, and our own spheres of influence, our Aura's influence on others! This is why Thomas says so often to 'expand your truth bubble!

The dodecahedron is associated with the all permeating medium, sometimes called the Aether. These forms nest, inside of spheres in specific relationships: The octahedron is inside a double tetrahedron which, in turn, is inside a cube. Picture the matrix of space as a combination of these three.

The icosahedron and dodecahedron are more fluid and all permeating. They go beyond our spatial three dimensions and relate more to movement and energy.

The music refers to the vibratory nature of all five platonic forms residing in the nested Spheres. They unfold in harmonic ratios, some of which we can experience as sounds with the human ear.

However, to hear the Music of the spheres is actually an inner hearing that we can experience when we open in spiritual growth.'

Thus the reason for the shape of the mind control technology being in a hexagon is revealed. This structure on Saturn and the Moon was in the hexagon shape to both bind us to a lower octave of vibration but to bind us in totality within it! It was the interface both technologically and physically in our solar system of our bodies to the Ai matrix.

The mimicking, copying and reduction at the same time of the Natural Life grid matrixes was to place an overlay directly overtop the Natural ones, yet offset to the Natural Life grids. Thereby blocking our spiritual soul growth on the flower of life, tree of Life. Saturn and the Moon purpose was to shunt our movement and manifestation energy of our thought forms into their dark abyss of tree of Daath/death. Where it would feed the ones who chose not to do their own soul growth themselves, but take our energy to piggy back on our energy and keep us locked into the time loops, and loosh harvest.

To remind people, there is an original, good use of dark. It was to stimulate growth in species that had grown complacent, levelled off in development on lush fruitful worlds, such a Earth was, is even. It is seen in our most ancient nature based worlds myths as tricksters..things that tricked us to test us on our path. Like initials of positive intent these tricksters kept us on our toes, learning and growing evermore into who and what we are and can do as Source origin beings learning how to be creators!

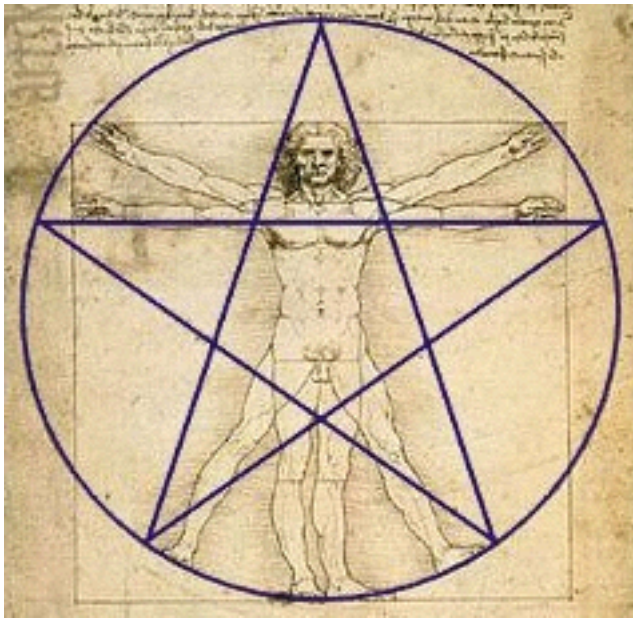

In all those myths, especially the Native , indigenous ones, the trickier character often became evil after the introduction of christianity or draco concepts. What was a test, a natural initiation via a dark lesson became insurmountable, a demon to fear..thus we starved the inner wolf which made it worse..instead of befriending what is us in reality..and expanding what we are.

Know that these wolves of our own shadow aspects will bare their teeth, fear them not as you go up and down your chakras clearing the emotional aspects where you are imbalanced! Forgive starving them! neglecting yourself ..and what was distorted in the inverted mirror magic spells, illusions that, we too, were convinced were real gets seen as the they actually are. Then the web of lies these impersonators wove about us, that we have lived under for so long will become clear as glass!

We were connected to the sound of the music of the spheres within each of us! We all have heard the phrase, concept that our thoughts create our reality. Well they do! Its just that in this Ai matrix our thoughts are reflected back at us, our thought-forms, the tools of our manifestation abilities go no where! Not out into the universe to be made real as our higher selves never receive them past the dark mirror magic of this Ai matrix!

The 5 pointed star shape, an octave of the platonic solids, represents our very bodies if upright in the natural state. *Note the cube of the Earth Natural grid around us in Michelangelo's drawing.

Inverted, upside down and you have the 'satanic' symbol.

We are the "hanged man" in the satanic one, in the Ai underworld, so to speak. This is the bind of the fear sin based religions- to bind us, religare- word root meaning of religion being to bind our being/our souls from the flower on the natural tree of life instead to the tree of Daath/death.

The Kabalists (obvious word root of Kabal/Cabal) tell us in plain sight that the Saturn planetary being and its planet was involved in our sabotage with its hexagon mind control technology with the various placements of Saturn on their Kabalistic tree of life. The quilonphthin or Kabalistic tree of Daath or Chaos is all names for this inverted tree of the Dark Magician. The Kabalistic tree even contain structures named one of the names of the Saturn planetary being, "typhonic wormholes" or portals. These 'typhonic wormholes' were the very real, and carried our loosh energy to wherever the allies of the Saturn wanted.

There is various depictions of this tree of Death, as I will now call it for simplicities sake. At each point of these trees are places called seperthoths, where the planets are located and associated to our bodies energy centre at that same location.

(seper- thoths is a part of another the word spell there, Thoth being Ra aka Marduk)

In between each planet/seperthoth is lines or pathways that are represented by a tarot card archetype or astrological sign. Each of these in reality, to simplify it, is a thought form modality one can either utilize for good of evil, depending on which tree the individual is

The original tree of life was an esoteric map of sorts to show the way of balance thru the myriad of experiences a soul has in each incarnation via the exploration of the archetypes in both the planets astrological mythologies and archetype qualities of the pathways connecting them manifest as Life situations, lessons and personality traits!

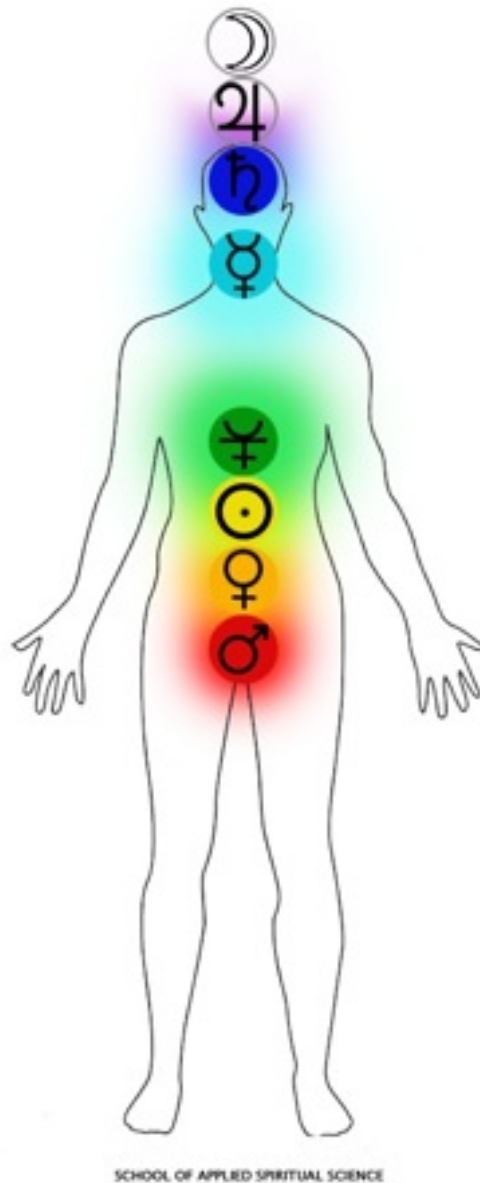

Even planetary Aeons, planetary being manifest Creation via the use of archetypes, thus do we as well. These were all meant to be ways to come to know thyself more!

There is however no balance attainable within the tree of Life with Saturn and its links to the inverted tree of death attached to it. We, as creations of the Natural tree of Life have been stuck in a cycle in imbalance, until recently.

Look at a few versions of the Kabals' tree to glean the locations of where Saturn is in terms of its disclosing it influence upon us by the programs worshipping of it, but first we need to know what the planetary glyph for Saturn is;

A hooked cross!

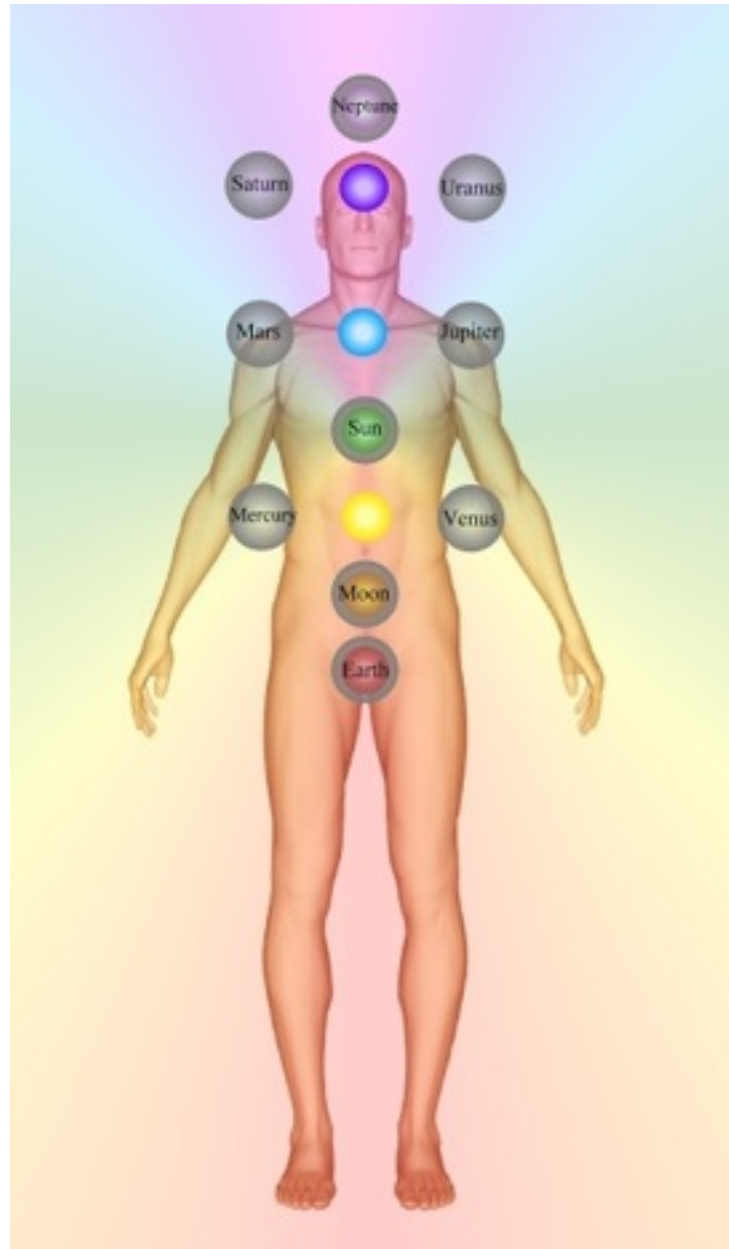

Now look at the above diagram of the placement of Saturn, using the glyph to locate it, note the chakras its associated with! Saturn is in our mind, thereby blocking our 3rd eye, obscuring our 'sight' of the real natural world so we only see their unnatural matrix.

One of two objects are commonly placed at the bottom of the Tree of Life, both above and below the placement of Earth. Saturn and the Moon. Although Saturn placement often is located in different places, the moon is almost always the seperthoth above Earth.

The moon's placement on the tree of Life is usually above the Earth symbolizing the natural astral. A place where in our sleeptime, or in meditation we could leave our bodies to go to and go practice with our full abilities in our spirit body, light body.

The Moon being overtop our sex chakra, our energy centre of creativity and manifesting creation, life itself, speaks to our time in the astral being very important to our soul growth and understanding of how we can manifest.

However with the Moon being a hollowed out Draco craft that was brought here shortly after the Draco return 13,000 years ago, it is not symbolizing the natural purpose and intent this planetoid is meant to be here. The moon on the Kabalistic tree is the false Ai astral.

The fake Moon and its Ai astral was used to scare and intimidate us back down into the inverted tree. This is where the Ai shadow being play spiritual whack a mole with each of us when we try and Light up! As make no mistake, the reason for our personally tailored nightmares is due to the astral lunar realm not representing the natural astral realm, unless we are able to break free of the Ai astral in our out of body forays, which not many are able to do, until now.

The Moon governing humanities sensuality, sexuality especially in the Ai matrix explains the hyper-sexualization of both children and 'beautiful people' in our Draco imbued society.

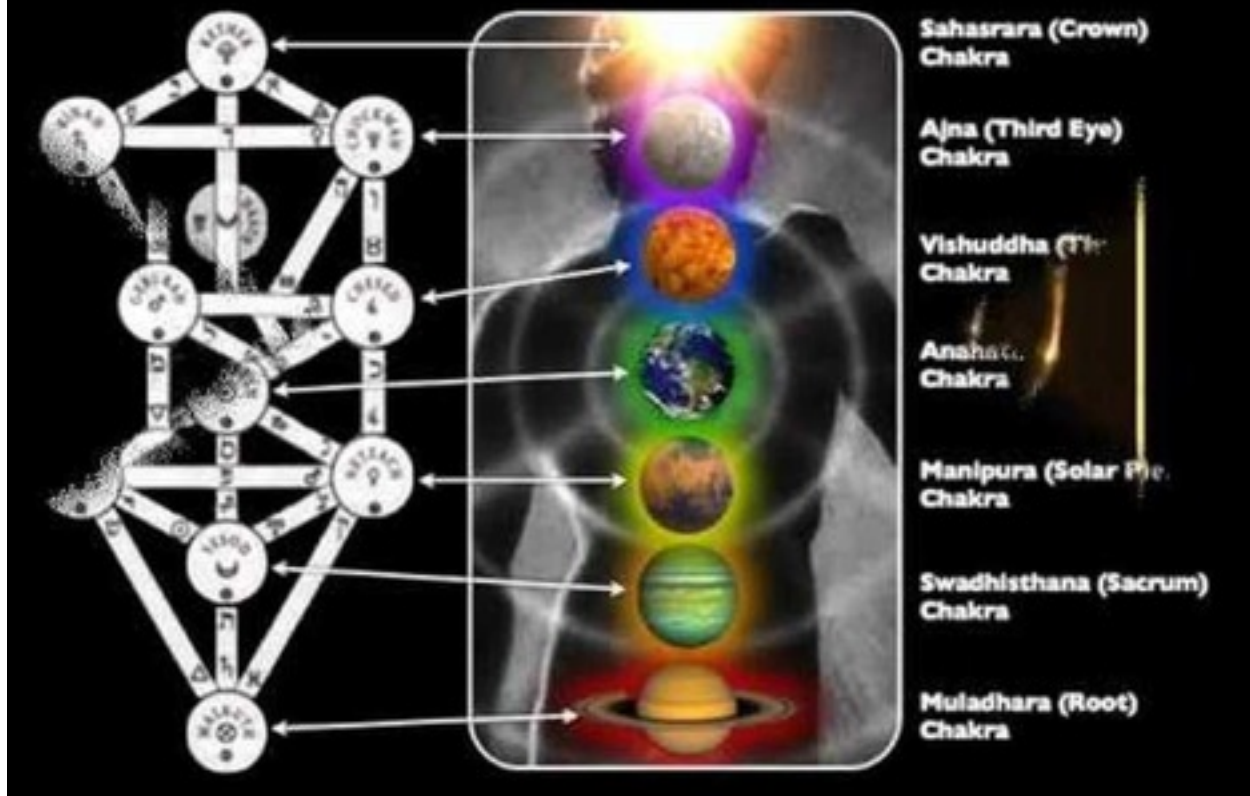

There is also evidence that the loss of Tiamat from our Solar system and its 'ghost' position on the tree of Life as a planetary seperthoth was taken over by the moon.

On the next page is an a specific to the Kabalistic tree of death or Chaos as they label it in this image, of the moon in our heads. Symbolizing the mind control of this collectively huge trauma to most of us incarnate now. Remember souls from almost all local planets got incarnated on Earth soon after the reformation of Tiamat and Tara, original Earth.

Tiamats' energy centre was at the back of the head, where the skull meets the top of the spine physically. An 8th, chakra/energy centre! Where Tiamat's' unknown original archetype pattern was in our bodies. With the fake Moon taking Tiamat's place it added additional potency behind our exaggerated sexual 'dramas' holding the pattern of that planetary destruction trauma deep within it. This really explains how most chakra experts believe we hold an extraordinary amount of unresolved issues in our sexual organs. Yet another way the Draco's teachings to the programs and covens took advantage of the many years of traumatic events we have been through to block us from rising above their control.

Also this root chakra position of Saturn on the Kabalistic/Quilophthian tree of Daath, make it sit in our minds as well, 'as below, so above' and vice versa of a famous quote of Aleister Crowley - you co-opt the root connection to our natural tree of life you are able to mind control us.

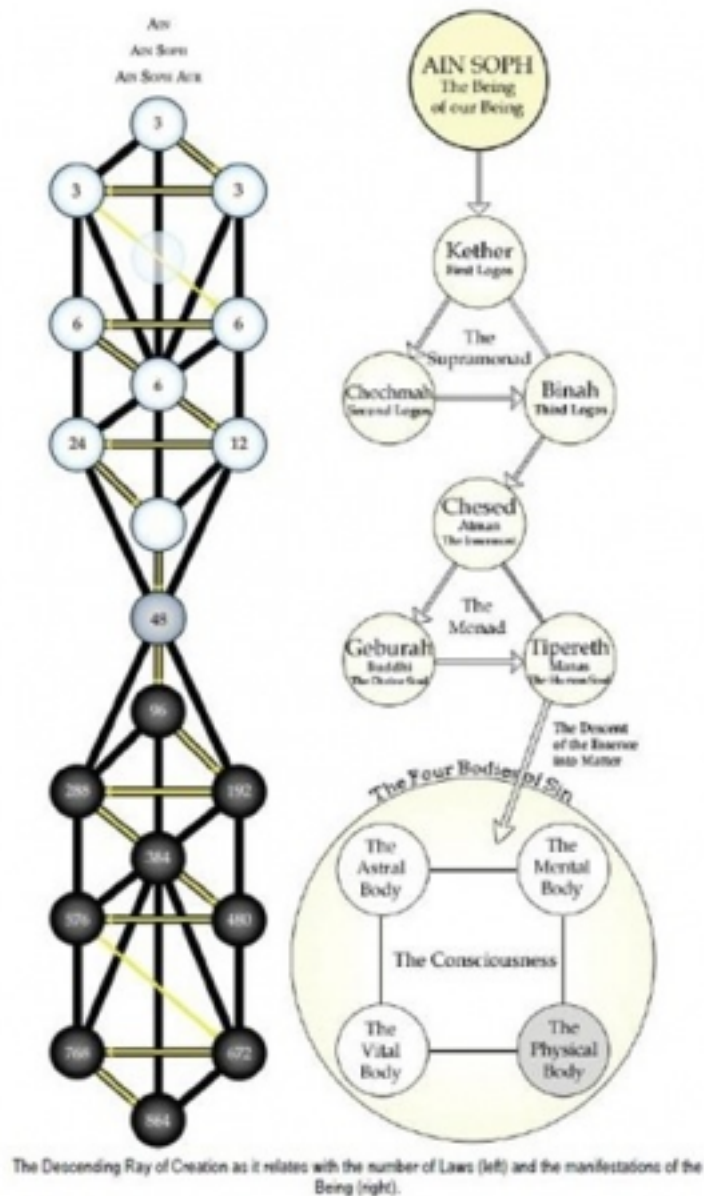

Kabbalah - Tree Of Life

Additionally when Saturn is placed below Earth, beneath our feet, it links Saturn to the top, or 'the crown' of the inverted Kabbalistic tree of death, as seen in the next diagram. The rearranged structure of Saturn and the moon very much speaks to the re routing our connection to the natural tree of life/Source via our Earth planetary being.

The bottom of position also places the dead Sun of Saturn to be the Black sun in the Illuminati cults. Literally a drain, or typhonic wormhole for our loosh energy, life-force energy to be shunted off to via the Draco 'Satan/Lucifer/Devil/Hades/Set/Typhon' egregore to wherever the Draco wanted. To be received on the Draco's preferred ringed worlds receiver arrays?

This worship of the black Sun, the inverted tree fuels and grows the egregore of 'Satan' The Ai additions of the Ai shadow beings is where the Ai overlaps with the Saturn/Moon matrix.

Here is why now is our opportunity more than any other time loop re-done in this matrix that we can break free of the programming, that has stymied our senses and minds/hearts to see nothing but this matrix:

The Moons hexagonal technology was broken beyond repair in September of 2015. It was hit by our planetary beings warriors who can get outside the matrix until this hexagonal structure was hanging by a frizzing thread.

It was not long after that Saturn's hexagonal technology was removed and destroyed entirely in October of 2015. Set/Typhon was also removed from Saturn and sent to his/her Source to be made accountable. Lets just put it this way, Incarnating is no longer available to Set/Typhon due to his/her actions on other words playing god.

These control structures are irretrievable broken and not able to be repaired or rebuilt. period.

There is no forgiving the actions upon us by these ET species until our anger has a course of resolution, and that will only really happen when we really have the full neutral account of all these impersonators actions. Which quite frankly at this time is not wise or even a priority for our healing at this time until this matrix and our attachments to it are gone! Yes it would make us feel better in the short term, but that is the quick and easier path of the dark side, retribution and will only continue the cycle of abuse that began all this.

The key to the last, 4th layer of the matrix, the one in our minds, is ending our illusions.

Yes, We still have to deal with the last remnants of ones who currently worship this false 'Satan' egregore. The quickening is happening though, and even as reported by Shane the program members are realizing the falsehood of their 'gods'

The key is each of us, as each of us as we uproot the ideologies present inside of us that support giving or taking of energy from anyone, abuse of self or other in any form. All these things support the 'Satan' egregore.

Any feelings of guilt, shame and sin, any ideas of prejudice against self (low self worth of martyr complex) or other or vice versa the need to be the 'One', more important than anyone. There is no one key, genetically or otherwise- we are all the key. We are all Neo's, the once 'smiths' of the matrix woken up to the double edged sword these ET species fooled us with.

With the removal of these hexagonal control structure layers taking up space in our energy centers, supplanting the place of our true connections to our higher self, the planet, and most of all the blocks to each of our respective Sources gone our own inner reset will quicken at a rapid but gentle rate. It will seem hard at first, just as it was said most powerfully in the matrix movies, when Neo was ejected form the pods, 'why do my eyes hurt? You have never used them before. And what are you doing to my body? Rebuilding your atrophied muscles.

Reclaiming our energy centres will be at first like using muscles, organs we have not used. These Ai matrix control structures to do with the Saturn/Moon matrix maybe destroyed but we do still have the mental habits, imprints, and scars of this tree of Death has had upon us, it is our choice to re-connect to all that we are in reality to shut the last of the illusionary matrix.

The charlatans in our truth community need to be avoided at all costs at this stage. We need no help whatsoever from others to uncover where we ourselves have bought into, allowed our inner wounds to co-opt us in the matrix. Each of us is our own best 'doctor' to diagnose and become accountable to the thoughts, feelings that are not in balance in our energy centres, or in alignment with our soul path. A good starting point is as simple as looking at the repeated life lessons we each have experienced, maybe different peoples, places, ages- but a pattern is can be seen of the ways we have tripped ourselves up to stay in their game.

One of the most common ways we fail is to think we need help form outside of us. Doubting ourselves ability to understand the hows and whys resulting form living in an insane world. This writer wishes to deeply warn of digging too much into rabbit holes of distraction. Yes its out of a valid need to know more about oneself, but needing to get 'soul readings' from others, healings from others in the truth, or new age community is very dangerous here! It is completely unnecessary in fact now that these control structures are destroyed! We do have the ability to heal and find out more about ourselves from our own higher self reconnection cleared via our energy chakras flow being balanced.

The truth community has so many charlatans! Snake oil salesman with technology, or 'healing' practices that suggest the removal of chakras, impossible by the way! These are nothing but pushed by none other than STS Draco souls incarnate in Human form or heavily influenced by Draco!

Not to mention the fact that so many texts seemingly answer to spiritual matters, they know what are wounds are! They purposefully say the 'conveininet truths' we want to hear! Do not fall for it. They were either channelled by the Ai, or dictated via time travel, to scribes in the ancient times to gain our respect for them. Or even inserted as over-writes to the original teachers teachings in the many re-starts of history done by the Draco and allies. Always with all the key trigger words of just enough truth and wisdom of the original texts to get us on the hook. A big hook, to get you to give away our power.

Some very clear examples of this are the Law of One, and the 7 versions of the book of Thoth, all of which were Marduk's projects to set up his return to Earth as 'king'. Marduk's return failed, epically, by the way, but that does not stop the ones in the programs, and bad military who still be-lie-ve the promises the Annunaki made them.

This article was not an easy one to write, there is so much that was not gone into that is too dark, and this writer does not like to talk about in great detail, there is enough out there on the internet describing the ordeals, death that resulted from the worship of Luciferanism. We will deal with that entire box of anger later when we have healed ourselves enough to destroy the matrix in its entirety. Our empowerment of our Natural right to be connected to our true self, purpose and soul growth needs to be the focus for now to end this.

The solution to Humanity breaking the matrix once and for all was the underlying purpose of why this article was written and it should be clear now that that requires some digging deep work, the path of Jedi is more work, but it is worthy, lasting and eternal in its rewards!

So please, Work with your energy centres, do not bother to "study" the tree of death, or super hard knocks any longer..no need to go down that road we have already been down it, the dark side path.

Lastly, a pep talk about dark and Light sides in Life being balance in the Force:

A discussion about balance in our perceptions here as compared to our whole self's journey, soul evolution is important as this is something that too has been distorted here to keep us locked in to war of 'good and evil'

So what is good or evil, light or dark and how it relates to attaining balance needs to be defined to take us away collectively from the light vs. dark battle we have been locked in for far too long:

A dark orientated being does not make it evil. A light orientated being does not make it good. Its the choices and actions of each being that makes it 'good or evil'

As my good friend Shane says: Its not what happens to the person its how they react to it. The choices all beings make are based on the perspectives that they have. Perspectives are 'truths' that are taken up via the beings understandings of ones own self and (in terms of) how the world, Universe, and even Creation itself works.

So knowing oneself thoroughly no matter dark or light in origin is what creates a balanced being. A being that can create its own energy without the need to sap it away from any other living being or system. All of the full spectrum of their frequencies dark and light are known, as we each are multi-dimensional beings who have both dark and light in us. A balanced being has no dark shadows within them that are not in the light, and vice versa, Light shadows in the dark.

In the current dimension we live in, dualities are the primary mode of expression of our emotional, behavioural flow. Read the following list, as these are the most common archetypes Humanity gets stuck in, especially as they are waking up! The first step to balancing is to recognize and admit what extreme polarity you are most often getting stuck at. This is key as shifting your focus to the fulcrum of balance and neutrality in whichever of these poles will give you the centre to keep returning to as you do the soul work to clear all of your energy centers.

Power/acknowledgement or be controlled/submissive(too nice)

Savior or martyr/be saved

rescuer or victim,

grandiose or depression

Meet these dualities in the middle by touching each end of them, feel smell stumble long enough at each extreme end to know if this is your big red thread of getting stuck! And gain the learnings from each choice, and grow beyond them! Balanced in your sovereign will and intent to create your own energy. Doing this dance of the polar opposites in context of the whole you wish to attain back you will teach you again just what it feels like to be in your own balanced flow of each area of your Life your energy centres manage.

become the trunk of your own tree the middle pillar, unmovable on the Natural tree of Life in Creation!
